CLINICAL ASSISTANT PROFESSOR PERFORMANCE

Primary role is in course development, design, and distance education teaching development. These duties include the development and participation in acquiring University certification for the e-Social Work Practice Certificate, revising online courses, and working as a liaison with faculty content experts in course design and development. Additional duties include teaching two classes per academic year, admissions database management, and support for MSW Direct adjunct and full-time faculty and prospective students. Presenting informational programs on teaching online and developing faculty and adjunct faculty expertise for teaching online through mentorships, training, and presentations. Adaption and implementation of Objective Structured Clinical Examinations (OSCEs) in social work distance education practice courses, while researching the OSCEs' effectiveness in students' practice skills training and preparation for fieldwork. Hire, manage, and train licensed clinical social workers as actors for the OSCE. Research on e-Social Work practices, assessment in distance education, practice preparation, and interactivity and engagement in distance education courses.
